A crowd of Poles attempted to take possession of St. Paul's church in Omaha and a fight ensued. Three men were wounded. The cause of the fray was the removal of the priest in charge by Bishop Scannell.

The Black-Bob land case has at last been adjusted and the Carney and Wagstaff heirs are successful. Settlers are now required to pay $5 per acre for all lands occupied by them. There were 10,000 acres in dispute.

The governor of Louisiana and the mayor of New Orleans both talk indifferently and in an unconcerned tone of the slaughter of the colored free stevedores by the white union men at the wharves. Citizens are excited.

The Missouri legislature has passed and the governor has signed an act to stop the manufacture of butterine in that state. This wipes out that department of the Doid Packing company, the only butterine makers in Missouri.

Clemens, a well known railroad man, in northwest Kansas, who was sentenced to two years for robbing the Pacific and American Express companies while station agent for the Rock Island at Norton Center about a year ago. The commutation releases him at once.

Over 5,000 cattle men held their nineteenth annual meeting at Fort Worth, Texas, beginning March 12. They adopted resolutions commending and supporting the present rigid method of cattle and meat inspection, and demanding that article be imported from countries which bar our meat products, wines, liquors and other edible commodities, be subjected to a like inspection.

The records of the executive office, upon which Governor Morrill has been depending for information as to appointments made in the past, show evidence of embezzlement and charges, so that they do not tally with executive messages to the senate. This is true in the appointment of Bank Commissioner Breidenbach and of Householder and Lease as members of the state board of charities. The effect is to place in doubt the propriety of the terms of office of these persons expire.

SERVED IN TWO WARS.

THE GRIP ALMOST WON WHERE THE BULLET FAILED.

Our Sympathies Always Enlisted in the Infirmitie of the Veteran.

From Woodstock, Va., Herald.
There is an old soldier in Woodstock, Va., who served in the war with Mexico and in the war of the rebellion. Mr. Levi McInturf. He passed through both these wars without a serious wound. The hardships, however, told seriously on him, for when the grip attacked him four years ago it nearly killed him. Who can look on the infirmities of a veteran without a feeling of the deepest sympathy? His townspeople saw him confined to his house so prostrated with great nervousness that he could not hold a knife and fork at the table, scarcely able to walk, too weak to get up, and so on. They saw him treated by the best talent to be had—but still he suffered on for four years, and gave up finally in despair. One day, however, he was struck by the account of a cure which had been effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He immediately ordered a box and commenced taking them. He says he was greatly relieved within three days time. The blood found its way to his fingers and his hands which had been palsied assumed a natural color, and he was soon enabled to use his knife and fork at the table. He has recovered his strength to such an extent that he is able to chop wood, shock corn and do his regular work about his home. He now says he can not only walk to Woodstock, but can walk across the mountains. He is able to lift a fifty-two pound weight with one hand and says he does not know what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for others, but he feels that they have done a great work for him.

He was in town last Monday, court day, and was loud in his praises of the medicine that had given him so great relief. Mr. McInturf is willing to make affidavit to these facts without a feeling of the deepest sympathy? His townspeople saw him confined to his house so prostrated with great nervousness that he could not hold a knife and fork at the table, scarcely able to walk, too weak to get up, and so on. They saw him treated by the best talent to be had—but still he suffered on for four years, and gave up finally in despair. One day, however, he was struck by the account of a cure which had been effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He immediately ordered a box and commenced taking them. He says he was greatly relieved within three days time. The blood found its way to his fingers and his hands which had been palsied assumed a natural color, and he was soon enabled to use his knife and fork at the table. He has recovered his strength to such an extent that he is able to chop wood, shock corn and do his regular work about his home. He now says he can not only walk to Woodstock, but can walk across the mountains. He is able to lift a fifty-two pound weight with one hand and says he does not know what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for others, but he feels that they have done a great work for him.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were used for many years by an eminent practitioner who produced the most wonderful results with them, curing all forms of weakness arising from watery blood or shattered nerves. The pills are sold by every 100 to which flesh is held. The pills are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, all forms of weakness, chronic constipation, bearing down pains, etc., and in the case of men will give speedy relief and effect a permanent cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature. They are entirely harmless and can be given to weak and sickly children with the greatest good. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, (50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50) by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

No Sense of Humor.—Little Johnny: That young man who comes to see you must be pretty poor company. He has no sense of humor. Sister: Why do you think so? Little Johnny: I told him all about the funny way you rush around and bang doors when you get mad, and he didn't laugh a bit.—Street & Smith's Good News.

The Modern Way
Commends itself to the well-informed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Little Dot's Conclusion.—Little Dot: Uncle George says I'm "too loquacious." What does that mean? Mamma: That means you talk too much. Little Dot (after reflection): I see big words was made so folks could talk without hurting anybody's feelings.—Street & Smith's Good News.

In Some Parts of the World One Makes a Full Meal.
Pliny mentions that according to the historians of Alexander's expedition oysters a foot in diameter were found in the Indian seas, and Sir James E. Tennent was unexpectedly enabled to corroborate the correctness of his statement for at Kotlari, near Trincomalee, enormous specimens of edible oysters were brought to the resthouse.

One measured more than eleven inches in length by half as many in width. But this extraordinary measurement is beaten by the oysters of Port Lincoln in South Australia, which are the largest edible ones in the world. They are as large as a dinner plate and of much the same shape. They are sometimes more than a foot across the shell, and the oyster fits his habitation so well that he does not leave much margin.

It is a new sensation when a friend asks you to lunch at Adelaide to have one oyster fried in butter or eggs and bread-crumbs set before you, but it is a very pleasant experience, for the flavor and delicacy of the Port Lincoln mammoths are proverbial even in that land of luxuries—Philadelphia Press.

Can He Make Rubber?
Man has imitated the processes of nature so often and so successfully that there is no knowing where he will stop. An attempt is now to be made to manufacture rubber, instead of waiting for it to grow. Most of the crude product comes from South America, and the immense quantity of sap taken from the trees has affected their vitality. Many of the large and more productive trees are dying, and it will be many years before the young ones will be sufficiently grown to yield sap. The rubber industry is confronted with a possible sap-famine.

In this emergency a M. Berthelot comes to the rescue. He predicts that he will produce purer and better gum than can be found in Para, and more cheaply. This assurance opens up a pleasing vista. The very possibility of his success is soothing to the tired nerves of the denizen of the city in this hustling, bustling, noisy age. As a denuder of noise rubber is a genuine blessing. The next century will not only see pneumatic-tired vehicles in common use, but pavements and sidewalks of rubber, and rubber-covered floors, soft, elastic, and noiseless to the tread everywhere.

STATE AFFAIRS.

And Capital City News of State Interest.

The Topeka orphan's home got an appropriation of $1,800 from the legislature.

An official state paper to succeed the Topeka Advocate will be selected by the executive council March 27.

W. G. Bird, of Kansas City, Kan., has assumed charge of the position of state labor commissioner, to which he was recently appointed by Governor Morrill, vice J. F. Todd.

James Smith, private secretary to J. B. Johnson, master in chancery for the Santa Fe receivers, has gone to Las Vegas Hot Springs for treatment for sciatic rheumatism. His brother, W. H. Smith, accompanied him.

The state board of education will meet on the 21st for the purpose of passing upon applications for conductors and instructors' certificates for institute work and also to prepare a course of study for next summer's institutes.

The new state board of railroad assessors has outlined its work for the next few weeks. It is the purpose of the members of the board to make a tour of all the railroads in the state for the purpose of assessing the railroad property, and the first road to be inspected will be the Memphis. The assessors will start out on the Memphis next week, and will then go over the Rock Island, Frisco, and Santa Fe in regular order.

The company of cadets from the St. John's Military school at Salina called on Governor Morrill and were admitted to the executive office and introduced to the governor. Later the cadets spent some time in going over the state house. While assembled in the executive office Governor Morrill made one of his characteristic speeches to the young men and expressed his appreciation of the visit. The company filed in and out of the office in military order.

Capital: It has been customary until the last year for Shawnee county to distribute poor fund among the poor of the county. Last year, however, the plan was adopted of sending the poor to the poor house and reserving the fund for the support of the inmates. As a result some $11,000 has been turned back into the county treasury for general purposes of county expense. It is a very singular fact that notwithstanding the deficiency of this amount of $11,000 usually appropriated for charity in the county, and notwithstanding the severity of the winter and the general hard times, there has been a decreased call for charity compared with two and three years ago.

About thirty Episcopal clergymen of Kansas attended the funeral of Bishop Thomas in Grace Cathedral. Besides these were the following visiting clergy: Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, D. D., bishop of Missouri; Rt. Rev. J. F. Spalding, D. D., bishop of Colorado. Rt. Rev. M. N. Gilbert, D. D., assistant bishop of Minnesota; Rt. Rev. E. R. Atwell, D. D., bishop of west Missouri; Rt. Rev. F. K. Brooks, D. D., bishop of Oklahoma; Rev. Messrs. Talbot, Mann Smith, Holden, Dunn, from west Missouri; Rev. Dr. Lee from Oklahoma; Rev. Drs. Dobbin and Wright from the diocese of Minnesota; The Rev. J. W. Caldwell, late dean of Topeka, from Colorado and several prominent laymen from other dioceses.

The Masons are taking steps to build a Masonic temple in Topeka. The initial steps were taken and the following committee was appointed at a mass meeting of the Masonic lodges: John R. Mulvane, chairman; Mayor T. W. Harrison, and J. B. Furry. This committee is to be known as a committee on ways and means, and will submit a plan by which the temple may be built as soon as possible. The Masonic lodges own the property on the Northeast corner of Eighth and Quincy streets, and it is there that the temple will be built. It is the plan to put up a building five stories high and 100 feet by 130 in extent. The three lower stories will be rented, and the upper stories used by the lodges.

The State Board of Irrigation held the first formal meeting at the Department of Agriculture in the state house, and perfected an organization by selecting Hon. D. M. Frost, of Garden City, as chairman and Hon. W. B. Sutton, of Russell, secretary. The northern district, as formed by the board, comprises the first two tiers of northern Kansas counties; the central district the two succeeding tiers of counties and Rice county; the southern district includes the remaining counties. M. B. Tomblin, member of the board from Sherman county will have charge of the northern district, Judge Sutton, the central, and Mr. Frost will have charge of the southern district. The members of the board decided that they will direct their energies and expend the money at their command in carrying out the most practical features of the bill. It is the opinion of the members of the board that the measure in question, as passed by the legislature, is exceedingly ambitious, and that the provisions of the bill, if carried out as indicated, would require the expenditure of from $300,000 to $400,000.

Sol Miller, editor of the Troy Chief, has declined to accept the appointment by Governor Morrill as a member of a state board of pardons, and has returned the commission for the place to the governor with thanks.

Warden Chase has sought to enjoin the appointment of a legislative committee to investigate charges against him. His lawyers claim that the law requiring the governor to cause the appointment of such a committee is defective in its title. District Judge Hazen has the point to decide.

Two players on each side have to play alternately with one ball. One village has ball No. 1 and the other ball No. 2. These balls are 2 1/4 inches in diameter, and in weight are 1 1/4 pounds. The material is of hardwood rot, and lead is poured into six holes, of which every two face each other. This lead makes the ball a first-rate missile, and the smooth surface of the hardwood lets it quit the fingers easily when the throw is made. Now what is the object of this throwing? It is simply to get as far as possible down the appointed course. You have to walk for an hour at least and back again. He who can cover the distance with fewest throws wins.

I would like to see a good English cricket-ball thrower contend at this game with these Germans. In each case a man who can throw 100 yards is a very good thrower. The Germans, in throwing, go through an amount of acrobatic contortion and leaping that I have never seen practiced at baseball or cricket-ball throwing. But the Germans are very accurate. One great point with them is to cast the missile so that it shall continue after touching the ground to go on. The ball, therefore, should be thrown as low as possible, so that it may have force to bound and roll onward when it alights.—Good Words.
